Sir:

APPELLANTS' RESPONSE TO THE DECEMBER 14, 2006 INTERLOCUTORY ORDER OF SENIOR ADMINISTRATIVE PATENT JUDGE MCKELVEY

Appellants respond to the December 14, 2006 interlocutory order ("the order") of Senior Administrative Patent Judge McKelvey by canceling all claims on appeal in both applications without prejudice or disclaimer. Cancellation of these claims makes the issues raised in the order moot, and places the allowed claims in condition for the application to go to issue. Appellants have also sent courtesy copies of these amendments to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences under separate cover.

The order also requested appellants, independent of the submissions suggested, to demonstrate compliance with 35 U.S.C. § 135 (b). In this regard, the file histories of the applications in these appeals show the claims trace their filing back to October 17, 1995, a time prior to the one year anniversary of the earliest to issue of the three patents cited in the order, i.e., United States Patent 5,356,718 issued October 18, 1994.

In answer to the inquiry of Senior Administrative Patent Judge McKelvey, appellants do not have a paper copy of the file history of United States Patent No. 5,356,387.

Lastly, please send all correspondence to the following address in view of the Power of Attorney filed by the applicants' assignee on June 24, 2005. The order was misdirected to the offices of Finnegan Henderson who forwarded a copy to the undersigned attorney as a courtesy.
